VACANCIES THAT NOW EXIST.

Several Desirable Places Are at the Disposition of the Retiring Governor-Dockery's Wishes Will Be Considered.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. Jefferson City, Mo., Dec. 31. - Governor tephens says he expects to work in harony with Governor-elect Dockery on the appointments which are now open. He wants to appoint the board of five members who will preside over the new Lunatia Asylum No. 4, located at Farmington, and seems also inclined to do so if the architect and contractors of that institution inform him of its completion before the expiraon of his term. "That institution was authorized during my term," he says. I have taken a great interest in it. It would be a great satisfaction to me to name the men who are to preside over it. I have word now that one or more buildings will be ready by January 10. The new board should take charge as soon as possible, because it will be necessary to get an apropriation of $190,00) from the present Legislature, and the new board must do that work and begin it as soon as possible if it wants to be success-

I shall not reach a decision in this until I have talked with Mr. Dockery, and the present Police Commissioners of St. Louis. I believe the present Commissioners have served the public well and have made a good showing. If they were confirmed by the Seate they could not be derived of the Senate they could not be deprived of their places unless charges were preferred and established against them."

Eastern Buyer for Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney Follows His Brother to the Grave.

TWO DEATHS IN FOUR DAYS.

John D. Vandervoort Died in New York Last Friday-Firm Sends Representative to Attend the Funeral.

William L. Vandervoort of the Scrugges. Vandervoort & Barney Dry Goods Company died at his home, No. 125 West Fifty eighth street, New York City, at - $20 o'clock yesterday morning. Death was due o sentility and to a general collapse in health.

Mr. Vandervoort was 73 years old. He was the second of his family to die within a week, his brother, John D. Vandervoort, having died in New York last Friday night. W. L. Vandervoort had been sick for a long time previous to his death, and for some time his condition had been regarded as extremely critical.

For forty years Mr. Vandervoort had seen connected with the firm in which his name figures. He came to this city in 1866 and entered business with R. M. Scrugge in that year. Later he was one of the organizers of the Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney Company. He remained in this city for several years, and then returned to New York.

For twenty years he had represented the firm, as Eastern buyer, with offices at No.

442 Broome street, New York. He con-tinued his connection with the company up to the time of his death, but for six or seven years has not actively partici-pated in the business on account of illmaith.

He was a frequent visitor in this city. his last visit here raving been in May last year. The occasion was the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the business career of his partner, Richard M. Scruggs. On that occasion a silver loving cup was presented to Mr. Scruggs by the employes of his firm.

Mr. Vandervoort was a member of the Episcopal Church, and was a Mason, helonging to a New York lodge. He was a member of the Manhattan Club in New York. He was well known in both cities in club circles and while visiting here would sometimes make his home at the St. Louis Club.

The funeral will be held to-morrow in New York, the services most likely at Trinity Chapel. Robert Johnston of the Scruggs, Vandervoort & Barney Company left St. Louis for New York yesterday to attend the funeral.

There will be no change in the conduct of the business on account of Mr. Vandervoort's death.

His brother, John D, Vandervoort, who died last Friday night in New York City, was 77 years old. It is thought thet the latter's death, although recorded as heart disease, was due to worry over the critical illness of his brother. William, as much as to any other cause. At 19 o'clock last Friday night he received a telegram stating that his brother's condition was worse and a short time later he died. Yesterday his brother followed him to the grave.

W. L. Vandervoort was noted for his taste in artistic matters and was fond of art in general. He was never married. His brother, John D. Vandervoort, left four sons and three daughters.

Duluth, Minn., Dec. 31.—The December flax deal in the Duluth market went out to-day and it was an exciting moment for the shouls; with less than a total of 10,000 bushels to deliver, they big the price to $1,52% without getting any.

E. C. Warner of Minneapolis is the man who held the corner. He began to accumulate the December in this market early in September. During the process of the deal he has bought about $6,000 bushels, and within the past five days he has put the price to $1,52% from $1.50.

MISTOOK WIFE FOR BURGLAR. Citizen of Brunswick, Ga., Shot His Spouse Dead.

Decides for the Defendant.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL

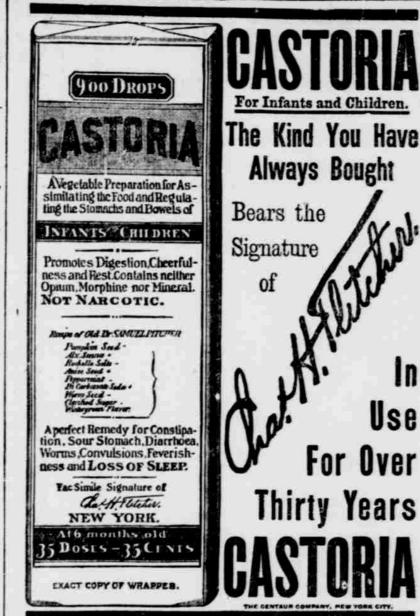

Little Rock, Ark. Dec. II.—Judge Jacob Tripber, in the Federal Court this morning, decided the case of Charles M. Newton vs. J. N. Wooley in favor of the defendant. The court finds that to enforce the contract specifically would be so oppressive and work such a hardship on the defendant that the court in its discretion could not grant the prayer of the complainant. The enforcement of contract under the conditions now existing would give to Newton a larger interest in the road than Wooley has, while as agreed upon between the parties Wooley was to receive one-half the road, subject to a $10,000 lien in his favor. Wooley having sold the road to a corporation, the court is unable to secure for him the $20,000 preferential lien. For this remon the court decides to grant specific enforcement of the contract, but requires Newton to sue Wooley in the law court for hieach of contract. In view of the fact that Wooley was at fault, he is taxed with the entire cost of the suit, amounting to several hundred dollars. Brunswick, Ga., Dec. 21.—J. R. Howling Green, Mo., Dec. 31.—Congressman Champ Clark, who spent the hoidays here with his family, left this morning with his little son, Bennett, for Washington, to be present at the convening of the House. To a Republic reporter he said: "Outside of the regular appropriation bills, the apportionment bill under the new cellsus, bills to perfect arrangements for the contential celebration of the Louisiana. ly local interest, little will be done this session.

The Hanna-Payne ship-subsidy bill will precipitate a red-hot debate in the House, as it has already done in the Senate. Its passage is doubtful. Almost all the Democrats, re-enforced by some Republicans, will fight it to the end. It is a most victous measure to tax the great body of the people $180,000,000 for the benefit of a handful of Mark Hanna's pets-contributors to his campaign fund. The way to build up the merchant marine is to remove the high tariff on building materials for ships. American industry, energy and ambition will do the rest."

GRAND JURY REPORT CONSECRATED ROCKS EXPECTED TO-MORROW

Body Has Completed Its Investigations and Developments Are Anticipated in Police Case.

> The December Grand Jury closed its la bors, so far as the routine business was concerned, yesterday, preparatory to sub-mitting its final report, which is expected to-morrow morning.

What the nature of that report is only the jurors themselves know, as nearly all of their sessions have been executive. It is rumored about the Four Courts and in police circles far from the building that there will be developments in the police investigution. Probably not in years has any Grand Jury been watched with a keener interest by the police than has the present body. Nearly all of its discussions have been in executive assion. Assistant Circuit Attorney Samuel D. Hodgdon, whose duty it is to attend the Jury, to interrogate witnesses and give legal advice on questions which might arise, on several occasions was asked to leave the room, especially while the jurors were debating on testimony.

Few witnesses were in attendance yesterday. The principal work was the preparation of the report for presentation in court to-morrow. Though Mr. Hodgdon to-day turns his office over to his successor, Mr. Hancock, he will be present in court with the Grand Jury when the final report is made. will be developments in the police investigu-
